The Recognised Irish Republic

BY

Wm. J. M. A. MALONEY

The United States Has Constitutionally

1. Recognised the Status of Irish Nationals.
(Anglo-American Treaty, March 1917.)
2. Accepted jurisdiction over Irish Claim to Independence.
(Foreign Relations Committee Hearing, Dec. 11, 1918.)
3. Recognised Independence of Irish Republic and Intervened to secure Recognition by the Paris Tribunal of Nations.
(House Resolution, March 4, 1919.)
(Senate Resolution, June 6, 1919.)
4. Senate in Executive capacity reaffirmed its legislative act by incorporating in the International Peace Treaty Reservations concerning Irish Independence.
(March 18, 1920.)

Tract No. 10.

I swear by the Almighty God, by all in heaven and upon earth, by the Holy and Blessed Prayer Book of our Church, by the Blessed Virgin Mary and Mother of God, by her Sorrows and Sufferings at the foot of the Cross, by her Tears and Wailings, by Saint Patrick, by the Blessed and Adorable Host, by the Blessed Rosary and Holy Beads, by the Holy and Blessed Church in all ages and by our Holy National Martyrs, to fight until we die, wading in the fields of Red Gore of the Saxon Tyrants, and Murderers of the Glorious Cause of Nationality, and if spared, to fight until there is not a single vestige and a space for a footprint left to tell that the Holy Soil of Ireland was trodden on by the Saxon Tyrants and the Murderers, and moreover, when the English Protestant Robbers and Beasts in Ireland shall be driven into the sea, like the swine that Jesus Christ caused to be drowned, we shall embark for and take England, root out every vestige of the accursed Blood of the Heretics, Adulterers, and Murderers of Henry VIII, and possess ourselves of the treasures of the Beasts that have so long kept our beloved Isle of Saints, our Ireland in chains of bondage, and driven us from our genial shores to settle in foreign lands, and shall wade in the blood of Orangemen and Heretics who do not join us and become one of ourselves. Scotland too, having given her aid and succor to the Beasts, we shall leave in her Red Gore and shall not give up the conquest till we have our Holy Father complete Ruler of the British Isles as he was before the Reformation. To all this singly and collectively, I swear to fulfill as before mentioned with my eyes blinded, not knowing whom to me administered this oath, so help me God.

Among the questions and answers that follow we read:

Question. What do you think of the times; will they be good?

Answer. I think they will.

Question. At what time?

Answer. When we have a general shower of Protestant and heretic blood.

The above is an exact copy of the Sinn Fein oath taken from one of them during the riots in September, 1920, near Belfast, Ireland, this copy coming to America through an American citizen from Ulster, who has been there since late spring, 1920, with relatives, he having seen all the riots about Belfast (notably the bloody 12th of July).

(This Roman Catholic Irish oath had the stamp and seal of the Irish republic on it.)

These oaths are furnished at 25 cents per 100, or $2.00 per 1000.

Address The Rail Splitter, Milan Ill.
